

FACT SHEET

The Formula 5000 Championship is...

- * A professional road racing series for single-seat, open-wheel cars
- * Co-sanctioned by the Sports Car Club of America and the United States Auto Club
- * For cars meeting both SCCA's 5-liter (305cid) American stock block engine specifications carrying a maximum of 30 gallons of gasoline and USAC's specifications for 161cid turbocharged, 255cid double overhead cam or 320 stock block and head with maximum 40 gallons alcohol (mandatory). All turbocharged cars are required to make a mandatory pit stop

The Formula 5000 Championship will...

- * Be contested on road courses in the popular two-heat and feature race format. Following establishment of a two-two grid through qualification runs, cars in odd-numbered positions (1, 3, 5, etc.) will compete in the first qualifying heat. Even-numbered positions (2, 4, 6, etc.) will compete in the second qualifying heat. The top finishers from each heat will qualify for the final with additional competitors added to the rear of the grid through joint selection by the circuit promoter and co-Series Chief Stewards
- * Crown the 1975 series champion by awarding points on a new system of 36, 24, 16, 12, 8, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1 in order of finishing position in the feature event

The Watkins Glen Formula 5000 Championship race . . .

- * Will pay a $60,000 race purse plus manufacturer and contingency awards
- * Feature such drivers as defending champion and Pocono winner Brian Redman, Mosport victor Mario Andretti, '75 Indy winner Bobby Unser, 1974 Can-Am champion Jackie Oliver, Canada's Eppie Wietzes, Al Unser, Tony Dean, Jon Woodner and former F/5000 champs David Hobbs and John Cannon
